Dear Mr. Davison:

On September 10, 2015, you were present in Seldens Landing Elementary School for Back-to-School Night during which you interrupted the presentation of both of your children's teachers to raise off-topic questions, challenge whether certain reports were being released and to address your remarks to the parents. Your attempts to disrupt teacher presentations during Back-To-School Night will not be tolerated.

On September 22, 2015, you were present in Seldens Landing Elementary School for a Volunteer Breakfast and PTA meeting in which you appeared agitated and accused me in front of about 40 parents of violating the law and a student's privacy regarding SOL retakes. Your tone was both aggressive and accusatory. As I attempted to answer the question you raised when you were leaving the room to attend a court matter, you turned toward me and in a progressively louder voice repeatedly said I would not give you the information you wanted and that our retake policy was a violation of FERPA. I warned you that you would not be welcomed here if such disruptive behavior continued. You were about 3-4 feet from me when you then pointed at me and in a loud and hostile voice said "Try me. Try me. You'll end up in Federal Court." Several staff members heard this disruption and came into the hall. Parents have complained. Your escalating inappropriate behaviors cannot be tolerated in an elementary school.

On behalf of the Loudoun County School Board, you are hereby notified that you are forbidden to trespass or enter upon the property of Seldens Landing Elementary School, 43345 Coton Commons Drive, Leesburg, Virginia, or to attend any school-sponsored activity unless specifically authorized by me or my designee in advance, effective immediately.
